

Each grade is looking for person great at getting the word out by emailing and chatting with fellow parents. The class rep gains information by reading the school news and attending the PTO meetings. It's a good way to bridge communication between the school and families.

Class Representative